OFFICE OF THE COMPTROLLER TO THE

FROM

His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

I. & K.Y NO. 4960

Rajakaryaprasaktha
M. N. Krishna Rao Esq., B.A.,
Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
Financial Department, Bangalore.

SIR,

In inviting your kind reference to the Note under Article 209A Clause (iii), Mysore Service Regulations which lays down that when furlough on average salary is taken in combination with vacation or vacation and privilege leave, the period of vacation shall be reckoned as leave, I have the honor to request you to be so good as to inform me whether it is not the intention of Government to give, during such vacation, to the officer all the privileges due to an officer who enjoys the annual vacation without affixing or prefixing any leave thereto. Reading this note with Article 189, Mysore Service Regulations, as also the corresponding portions in the Civil Service Regulations and in the Fundamental Rules of the Government of India, I am inclined to think that the period of vacation, enjoyed by itself or in combination with any leave, should be regarded as duty, that no extra expenditure should be incurred during the period of vacation, when combined with leave and that the period of vacation is reckoned as leave only for the purpose of limiting the aggregate of leave, and vacation taken together, to the maximum period of six months or eight months, as the case may be, as dealt with in Clause iii of the Article.

(2) I am making this reference as a doubt has been felt in construing the Government endorsement No.4894/C.B.102-22-7 dated 9th April 1924, communicating the Notification granting combined leave of nine months to Mr. Mc Alpine, Professor of English, Central College, from 31st July 1923 in whose case it is provided that the period from 3rd April 1924 to 30th June 1924, which is vacation on full pay " be treated as furlough on average salary." I request to be informed whether I am right in supposing that it is not the intention of Government that the period of vacation in Mr. McAlpine's case is to be debited to his leave account and it is not also the intention that the acting arrangements should continue for the above period and whether an increment which fell due to Mr. McAlpine during the period of furlough may be given effect to from the date on which the vacation commenced.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant;

Comptroller.

The Comptr's interpretation of the rules governing the grant of furlo' on full average salary in ~~the~~ combination with vacation is correct The period of vacation is treated as leave only for purposes of limiting the maximum period of leave that can be taken.

2) It is presumed that in the case of Mr. Mcalpine also, the genl rules apply. No acting arrangement is admissible during vacation, as the period is one of duty. The Adm Dept may perhaps be consulted.

As the orders referred to were issued the Confidential Book. This has in the
